Principals, Partners, Project Managers, and staff architects and engineers

Premium Credit

XLDP policyholders can earn a PLEP credit for this program. Please note that all required personnel (all principals, partners, and contract officers) of the firm must complete the program book and return the answer sheet for the course whether or not they attend the seminar in order for the firm to receive the 10% premium credit*.

*The premium credit is for those firms who have not already received credit for Liability IQ in the last 5 years. If your firm has already received credit for this program, you are still welcome and encouraged to participate for the education value.

Discussion Leader

Pam Riley Blake, A.V.P., Singer Nelson Charlmers, has worked on both the underwriting and the brokerage sides of the Professional Liability field for more than thirty years. As an Account Executive advising major accounting, architectural and engineering firms in the Metropolitan NY/NJ area on insurance matters, Ms. Blake also provides all of the risk management seminars for many of the firm's clients.

As Vice President, at Aon, she was responsible for the National Legal Aid and Defender Association (NLADA) Professional Liability Program nationwide. Ms. Blake, a Vice President at Marsh, handled the underwriting of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York (ABCNY) Professional Liability Program, established a product for the Legal Referral Service panel members, and administered the Accountants' Professional Liability Program through a major NY carrier. As a Minet Regional Director, she managed the New York State Society of CPAs (NYSSCPA) program and served as a frequent Loss Control panel member.

A graduate of Ursinus College (PA), Ms. Blake has completed post-graduate work at Penn State University and is a Chartered Property/Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) candidate.

Program Highlights

"Lessons in Professional Liability for Design Professionals", or "Liability IQ" helps A/Es learn common causes of claims and how they can be prevented or mitigated. The program explores current loss prevention issues and techniques that can be used in daily practice. Some of the topics encompass:

- Professionalism
- Communications
- Avoiding and Managing Disputes
- Business Practices
- Technical Procedures
- Professional Liability Insurance
- Where to Get Help
